

Volunteer Board Development Workshop Series

A series of workshops are being held across Prince Edward Island to assist volunteer groups with the challenges and rewards of volunteering on a board. Attendees will gain knowledge, a set of resources and examples to improve their own volunteer board. Three topics have been identified:

- Basic Roles and Responsibilities – Session 1
- Effective Board Meetings – Session 2
- Recruitment and Retention – Session 3

The workshops are designed to be attended in sequence for maximum benefit however workshops may be attended based on choice of topic.

Who should attend?

Anyone who serves on or works with a nonprofit board and would like to be more effective as a volunteer should attend the workshops.
